But there have been issues with Australia and India before, involving umpires. If a player knows he is out he should have the 'balls' to walk. While nobody loves them, they love the game. Aggersclearlystatesthatanyracismshouldbepunished. How do we play such people as umpire. Bucknor is the most experienced umpire in the world, and has no allegiances to anyone - tell me that there haven't been matches where india have received the rub of the green, resulting in a victory for . It'saneasydoubleplay,becausebothrunnerswerelingerinbythebases,ex not a case of English Glasses Mr Thomas - its about respecting the game and what it means - I wonder what the reaction would have been by the Australians if an English batsmen admitted doing what Symonds did when he was clearly out? He stated clearly that Singh should be punished if found guilty of racism.
