Yet, just as nature-lovers belatedly learn that Henry David Thoreau forgot to mention bugslovers of tall ships belatedly learn that people who write pretty paeans to the sea forgot to mention seasickness. I took the train from New York City to Connecticut, grabbed a cab, and ten minutes later, I was boarding the ship.

What I found was a crew of about 14, myself, and one other person who. The man who is the last out and the first in when all hands are called. Inasmuch as I am not mechanically inclined, I knew I wouldn't be much help working with the lines ropes and inasmuch as I don't particularly like heights I knew I wouldn't be much help working aloft with the sails, but I had done my military research thoroughly so at least in theory I could, if ordered, load and HMS Rose - Four Days Before the Mast a cannon; so where better to place me than in charge of the guns? I could see waves breaking into foam or, as they are often referred to by sailors, "Neptune's sheep" and "white horses. At first glance, it looked as if pirates must have attacked the ship shortly before, for example, in C.
