Most of the first half was boring girl-diary stuff, without introspection, A went to X and B did y. Using others should never be something you are proud of.

This was a book I really enjoyed and would recommend to anyone interested in the Lauren rated it it was amazing Jan 23, This was not all about the sexual exploits of Sally and her friends, they were growing up in a decade of change and there was mention of the assassinations of Martin Luther King, John F Kennedy and the Vietnam War, though not in any great. Her first husband was abusive with whom she had her only child, Angie.
Jan 21, Karen rated it liked it Shelves: Instances were just kind of thrown out with such notables stars as Herman of Hermit-fame, Donovan Leitch she wasn't sure it was him until he played "Catch the Wind" for her ; taking her friends for abortions in Mexico when she wasn't old enough to drive; and living her teen-age years with a neurotic mother and hard-working father who was afraid to cross .
