I think of this book as a 'take a break book' not a lot of time invested but it still touches you. Jul 05, Anna rated it liked it Shelves: Houtte This wasn't a bad book, but it wasn't particularly good . Refreshandtry. Specialty Booksellers Interest-specific online venues will often provide a book buying opportunity. A latter-day Secondhand Rose shares stories of her vintage clothing shop, her best finds and her family history in a memoir that shines with pure likeability. Part of the book described her childhood and how the author became a fashion model before Lots of nice descriptions of vintage clothing, mostly from 30s thru 70s; how she found it, sold it, wore it-all very lovingly presented. Manytipsforvintageslutslikeme:Atthebeginningofthebook,Houtte,afon has also disabused me of the idea that I should like to own a vintage store.
