We have one who risks her life to aid and warn those loyal to the King and we have Princess Flavia who is willing to deny herself her one true love in order to do her duty to her people and fulfill her own brand of loyalty. He is aware that he is distantly related and is vaguely aware that he resembles the king. NineteenEighty-fourGeorgeOrwell. Hannay is racist, sexist, Imperialist, arrogant and frankly unlikeable. Also in Campfire Graphic Novels. And perhaps we can only know how well we love if we are willing - should the need arise - to give it up. Mostrecentcustomerreviews.Oct 10, Schuyler rated it really liked it. The Prisoner of Zenda is one of the most enjoyable books to settle down with and read cover to cover.
