On October 27, we were stunned with the unimaginable, a football injury resulting in a catastrophic spinal cord injury to our son, Sterling Thomas. As you know, the complications that come with a spinal cord injury do not stop a few months after being injured; they are life long and new ones come and go.

Travis Sluss, owner of Mac Inspire spoke with us about the 3D printing campaign. Your generosity humbles me and alters my perception. I have a daughter Britt she is 15 this upcoming April and my son Tyler is turning 12 Feb 13th.

Words cannot express the gratitude I have for your organization. This grant to you again for your generosity I am truly humbled. I feel more independent because of this great gift.
