Rapture (Rapture Trilogy, #1), Tribulation (Rapture Trilogy, #2), and Apocalypse (Rapture Trilogy, #3) The Rapture has occurred, just as the Bible predicted.

Rapture has ratings and reviews. Kyle said: The Rapture has occurred, just as the Bible predicted. Loved the first two and just started book three.

Eighteen year old Sam is unable to rise up because he is half demon. Being a half-demon really did not instantly make him evil, in fact you would say he had more love and faith in God and humankind than human's did. I loved this book.

A videogame, Left Behind: Though "Rapture" stood its own ground I could see why Retrieved 4 October I liked the way the story jumped between past and present, only giving away relevant info in little bits which keeps you coming back for me! Having lost them due to the rapture, Sam is once again thrust into a world of solidarity and horror as demon attacks are a nightly occurrence. Refreshing. I wish the authors did not have to make all their books into "series". Harvey Coxa professor of divinity at Harvard, says part of the appeal of the books lies in the "lip-licking anticipation of all the blood," and theologian Barbara Rossing, author of The Rapture Exposed:
