I resign, the evening seemed to say, as it paled and faded above the battlements and prominences, moulded, pointed, of hotel, flat, and block of shops, I fade, she was beginning. Beauty of the Sunset II was when we were in particularly icy sections of our expedition that we found the sunsets to be most extraordinary. The stars were twinkling, the camels were snoring, but there was no other sound.

The nights spent sleeping under the stars on nothing more than blankets was surreal. It was when we were in particularly icy sections of our expedition that we found the sunsets to be most extraordinary. A beautiful sunset that was mistaken for a dawn. Rowling, Harry Potter and the Order of the Phoenix. You can tell that this sunset was taken at the last possible moment in the day. This golden beauty is from Tyre Beach in Lebanon.
