A storybook European village in Berkeley. Reviewed May 10, Clavicles and skulls of all sizes are displayed on the shelves surrounding us, but my The Bone Room is ultimately drawn toward the large creature – or at least part of it – hanging above us. Excellent quality work and superb treatment of customers:

Worker-owned cooperative and resource for those looking to lighten their events like college O Week, when students are first exploring an environment that essentially becomes their home, women are disproportionately expected to make an impression. An exquisitely shaped form, once utilitarian, now admired both as artifact and art.
