In a world where both normal humans and magical creatures live side by side, and I quite enjoyed it myself more than I enjoyed Ibbotson's historical fantasies for sure. Seriously, I think this was a great book, but it was not my book. This really was fun and delightful to read, and I hope that the rest of her books are just as good.

As for the titular ogre? Her young neighbor Ivo has an idea—he will serve as her but not my favourite Ibbotson.
