Courage to Walk | April O'Leary

It takes a lot of courage to walk alone in the right direction, but if you do it, you will discover things only the greatest people of the world discovered.

How to Find The Courage to Walk Alone

Have the courage to walk away. You were not the person that could change their heart. God is sending someone else to do that because you are needed else.

Pretty darn good, right? Batman and Joker faced some of the darkest fears we have as human beings: These men consider all information in front of them, but they remain focused on the prize.

You chose yourself over the person you loved and for the first time ever, youth
Often times we allow ourselves to stay stuck in a bad, miserable or unhealthy situation because we are afraid of the backlash we may get from the crowd if we decide to leave. Even though there will be moments in life when you will have to choose between going alone Courage To Walk the right direction and following the crowd in the wrong direction, I want you to stay true to yourself and I want you to look withing for the necessary courage to walk alone in the right direction.
