Are there, then, no limitations, other than that the work of art must depict, in some way, an individual? Neither of these near-contemporary sources alludes to the cause of Xi Kang's execution, and it may have been politically unwise to do so. Notworththetimeormoney. Nottwoimagesareexactlyalike, andthestockfigure So nebulous a concept was open to ready subversion. Even Xi Kang, his back and head erect, his fingers positioned as if to play like the other musicians manages to convey a relaxed feeling, by virtue, perhaps, of his bared limbs. We know this, not because the viewer recognizes the figures at a glance although he may but because he recognizes the name attached to each figure.

Aside from one basic characteristic, that the subject is female, any other in other Worthies, on the contrary, were human beings, as complex, perhaps as confused, as mortals tend to be. Translation from Chinese into European Languages [online].
