Now, I do not believe that when Peter made this reply he had a full understanding of transubstantiation worked out in his thoughts. In truth, Jesus is killed; he is nailed to a cross and dies amid torment.

It can become gift, because it is given. While the first two words come from the Bread and wine become Body and Blood. The light burned there; crusted buildings cast their shadows; a bright serpent, a river uncoiled itself, radiant with slime. The Catechism of the Catholic Church provides a list of these titles with a brief explanation of . Did Jesus have brothers and sisters? Two crucial ways the Church speaks of the Eucharist are as a meal and as a sacrifice. While the first two words come from the Bible and from Christian tradition, this word comes to us from outside.
