It's someone whose eccentricities compliment your eccentricities and then, fingers crossed, over the years you don't outcrazy each other That said, as I've already had tons of these conversations with friends over the years I also wasn't hearing anything particularly new and, apart from the stresses and worries that came along with having a chronically ill child, I don't think that this marriage is as fascinating as the authors. Mar 08, Krickit You Say Tomato it it was ok Recommends it for: Ihopethatshetrulyisn'tthisbad. Don't waste your time, I don't know who decided this book was funny I picked it up because it's got a clever title and I was wondering what advice a funny married couple might dish out about marriage. But they are oh so wrong. Hateit-Icannotwaittobedonewiththisbook. But a few chapters into it, I'm feeling like I would not hit it off with this Jewish Hollywood couple.
