The "War Lab" in the title feels suspiciously like an editorial retrofit, intended to make a weak manuscript stand out from the host of Churchill books. This subject has huge potential and I feel the author fell very short of the mark. Skiptomaincontent. To see what your friends thought of this book, please sign up. He is the central figure to the story, as is his admiration for new ideas and thinking, but it seemed too long to me. Share your thoughts with other customers. UsefulforthereaderlookingforanoverviewofWorldWar2orasastartingpoint expected much more on the WW2 science aspect. The main focus of the book is Churchill and his bio.
