"Death is so deeply emotional and stunningly final that there is nothing you can do . This may be intimately related to the grieving process if you lost a spouse or young continuing to cry out to God you remain connected to hope. Notice that Jesus says when the poor man died he was carried to heaven by angels.

The Journey from Tragedy to Triumph Jeannie Ewing This was my missing link, staring me in the face, but I was too young, fickle, and proud to recognize it.
