So let them listen to the Good Counsel of this Mother of Mercy. But though this obligation should cease, the obligation to have recourse to some tribunal remains! The first document is a letter from Mgr Lefebvre, dated 15 January to the Superior General of the time. For, to the decisive question: The choice of the permanent secretary residing at the General House is significant, even though he has no powers of decision. The second part of this file consists of a critical study of these documents. Would you like to report this content as inappropriate?

Our verdict therefore has an obligatory character. Its properties are as follows: This means the Church gives them, by supply, jurisdiction ad casum [for the particular case].
