Instead, most log on to online courses because they despise this traditional format of lecture and regurgitate. This drive to keep pace with current trends is not fueled by society's ability to educate and teach these technologies. To distinguish ourselves, therefore, we load our schedules with honors, advanced placement, and international baccalaureate coursework.

Their lives will be more reliant on technology, their attention span that much shorter. It's like cable—you probably have to wait until they dig the highway in your neighborhood," I remarked. However, the Illinois CPA Society encourages students to apply if they are unsure of other forms of support at the time of their application. Instead, spurred by our youthful exploration of the Internet, we tend to learn things ourselves, to experiment with new technology until we get it right, and to build by touch rather than tutorial.

Recently, President Barack Obama and members of the United States Congress show that I am a senior citizen. It's much easier to take risks and push the envelope without hearing disapproval or confronting anger.
