Add power, money and a tendency to enslave people and you've got the vilest character. I just found the character to be too damn annoying.

I thoroughly enjoyed the hero, Warren Wilkes and felt a close connection to him. I almost felt like I was there, basking in the The Gaia Wars of this wilderness retreat. Published on December 29, The bully is close behind, so Warren has time only to pick up a medallion that obviously belonged to the dead person. Overall the book was wonderful. The Gaia Wars by Kenneth G. A de I was really surprised that I finished this book in one sitting, I don't usually do that - don't usually have the time. And she's in a very bad mood thegaiawars.
