I suggest having sentences for each team. Here are some sentence sets with the same vocabulary. Outdoing others, and improving on oneself, are by and large enjoyable pursuits. I like them, hope you do too! Lower level students can make up simple sentences and higher level students more complex ones. The first team to shout the correct answer gets a point. And—really—I have nothing against students having a good time in class. Dash the class into two teams and give each team a colored marker. Some of them test the bounds of metaphor.
